

Christophe Hefti

Head Sales & Relationship Management CEE, Deputy CEO, Clearstream Fund Centre AG

Since 2020 and the transition of Fondcenter AG to Clearstream, he has been Deputy CEO of Clearstream Fund Center AG and responsible for Sales and Relation Management for the DACH region including Eastern Europe.

Christophe is CEO of Fondcenter AG. He assumed this role in January 2015 and is responsible for the management and strategy development of the fund platform business and for all client relationships. He is also a member of the Executive Board of UBS Asset Management Switzerland and the UBS B4B Operating Committee.

Prior to assuming this position, Christophe held various positions in UBS Asset Management and Wealth Management since 2003. He led the distribution of UBS investment funds to banks, insurance companies and asset managers in Switzerland and Liechtenstein and was responsible for the distribution of Fondcenter's platform services to CH and international partners. Before Christophe was appointed Managing Director of Fondcenter AG, he headed the Fondcenter and 3rd Party Wholesale Switzerland divisions ad interim.

From 2001 to spring 2003, Christophe was Head of Sales at UBS Asset Management, responsible for the distribution of B2B services and UBS investment funds to banks in Switzerland.

After completing his studies and training in 1995, he worked in various companies in the financial sector and consulting and joined UBS in 1999, where he worked in the area of investment funds and mandates as a client relationship and project manager.
