

Mark Burridge

Managing Partner & Senior Fund Manager

Mark has over 25 years' experience in the international metals and mining industry, starting off in technical roles including 6 years working at Barrick Gold Corporation.

After his early technical career, Mark worked in various financial roles, including 5 years at Merrill Lynch where he became a ranked analyst covering the mining sector before moving on to help found HCF Advisers, a boutique Corporate Finance firm, where he was a Managing Director.

Mark has also worked in Executive and Board roles for mining companies. Mark holds a degree in Mining Geology from the Royal School of Mines, Imperial College London and is a CFA charter holder.

Programm

ZEIT	Mittwoch, 24.04.2024, 14:30 Seminarraum 3
THEMA	Commodities – The energy and interest rate transition
REFERENT(EN)	Mark Burridge
