

Bruno Springael

Portfolio Manager, American Century Investments

Bruno co-manages and provides fundamental equity research and analysis for the Global Dividend Value strategy for American Century Investments and is also the sub-advised portfolio manager for the NN Investment Partners Global High Dividend Fund.

He has been a member of the ACI team managing this strategy since joining in 2021. Previously, Bruno was lead portfolio manager with NN Investment Partners for the NNIP Global High Dividend and NN US High Dividend fund before it was transferred to American Century Investments who are now the sub-advisor.

Prior to that role, he was head of corporate analytics with ING Investment Management Europe. Previous roles with ING included head of global sectors and head of equities and managing director of equity investments. Prior to that, he was a senior investment manager of fixed income with Bank Brussels Lambert (BBL) Group Asset Management. Bruno has worked in the industry since 1987.

Bruno has a master's degree in psychology and a post-graduate degree in management, both from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgium)

Programme

There are currently no events being held.
